

October 26, 2011

Contact: Greg Severin
Lents & Associates
314.968.3060
gseverin@lentsandassoc.com

YOUNG FRIENDS OF LEGAL SERVICES OF EASTERN MISSOURI WILL HOLD RECEPTION AT ARMSTRONG TEASDALE IN CLAYTON

ST. LOUIS – A special reception to celebrate the Young Friends of Legal Services of Eastern Missouri (LSEM) will be held from 6 p.m. to 8 p.m. Thursday, Nov. 3 at Armstrong Teasdale, LLP in Clayton.

“This is a great opportunity to learn about the Young Friends and LSEM's tireless work in helping low-income individuals in need of civil legal assistance,” said Narcisa Symank, president of Young Friends and an associate at Armstrong Teasdale. “It is also a great opportunity to meet other attorneys.”

Featuring opening remarks by Judge Stephen N. Limbaugh Sr., the reception is open to all Young Friends members and other young attorneys interested in joining the group.

Sponsored by Armstrong Teasdale, event registration is required. For more information on the reception and registration, please contact LSEM's Louisa Gregory at 314-256-8736 or lmgregory@lsem.org.

The Young Friends of LSEM is a dynamic group of young legal professionals under the age of 40. The group came together to support LSEM through pro bono service and to raise awareness of our organization throughout the legal community in the Greater St. Louis area. Some great networking events, service opportunities and social activities - including the Justice For All Ball After Party - are planned for the coming year.

Legal Services of Eastern Missouri (LSEM) is an independent, non-profit organization that has provided high quality legal assistance in civil cases to the low-income community for more than 50 years. LSEM is proud to be a United Way member agency. In 2010, LSEM represented over 21,000 people (including clients and their household members) in 21 counties of eastern Missouri.

###